

Politics

Politics encompasses all areas of life and so we've broken down this broad topic as follows:

- The politics of animal protection
- The politics of environmental protection
- The politics of the health sector

Who is not aware of the very touching stories of animals and people who continue to surprise us in astonishing ways (Simon: not sure what this sentence means). In this section we share some of these efforts in trying to help our fellow creatures on this earth.

Unemployment

Imagine for a moment the world without the meat industry. Would there be a lot of unemployment?

Abroad

Is there a contradiction of the major economic forces (Simon: not sure what this sentence means)? Some perspectives of animal protectionists from abroad.

Political Parties

Which Swiss political party represents the majority of people who are interested in protecting animals?
